

All-American Married to a Vikings Hopeful.

What: Redfield, South Dakota is looking to start up fastpitch in their community. There are few other adults who have fastpitch experience. Samantha Noethlich, a loan processor at Heartland State Bank, started playing as a young girl and grew up on the diamonds pitching which developed into full ride scholarships for college.

Who: Samantha Noethlich stole third base and slid into home in South Dakota. A previous resident of Apache, Oklahoma, Noethlich is now married to a former Vikings football player hopeful, Bill Noethlich. She currently works at Heartland State Bank as a loan processor. Before landing in small town Raymond South Dakota, she played fastpitch at Connor's State College and Tarleton State University with full rides. Noethlich was recruited for pitching and hitting. She went onto be an All-American as a freshman for the 2008-2009 season.
